InfoCision Receives Legacy Award and Seventh Business Growth Award

Akron, OH, Oct. 8, 2007- In recognition of its continued growth and investment in the regional economy, InfoCision Management Corporation was awarded the prestigious Legacy Award and its seventh Business Growth Award Thursday evening, October 4, at the 2007 Business Growth Awards dinner. InfoCision Management Corporation President and CEO, Carl Albright, accepted the awards.

“This past year has been outstanding for us as a growing company and for our employees. We are extremely honored to be recognized once again for the investments we are making in Northeast Ohio. The outlook for InfoCision has never been better as we continue to expand our locations and add employees to meet increasing client demand,” said Carl Albright, president and CEO, InfoCision Management Corporation.

The Business Growth Awards, presented by Cascade Capital Corporation, recognize companies that have either increased sales by at least 100% or $5 million or increased their workforce by at least 50 percent or 25 people. These increases have a direct impact on economic development by helping to generate growth and stability for our regional economy.
