InfoCision Receives Commendation from Governor Manchin
Outstanding Volunteerism is a Reflection of Company Values

Akron, OH, June 25, 2007- InfoCision Management Corporation received a commendation for volunteer service to the state of West Virginia from Governor Joe Manchin for outstanding commitment to volunteerism and exceptional contributions toward making West Virginia a better place.

Lending a helping hand to those in need is a way of life at InfoCision. The Akron, Ohio based teleservice firm partners with several of the nation's leading nonprofit organizations on a daily basis by raising funds and recruiting volunteers for many worthy causes. This commitment to charity is stressed throughout the company. InfoCision strives to be a solid community partner in each community where one of its call centers is located.

Every year InfoCision and its employees donate hundreds of thousands of dollars and countless volunteer hours to the causes they support in the communities they call home. Events InfoCision personnel volunteered for in 2006 in Huntington included The Ritter Park Easter Egg Hunt, the Salvation Army Angel Tree Program, the March of Dimes WalkAmerica and Oktoberfest at Pullman Square, among others.

Through this commitment to helping others, InfoCision employees take comfort in the fact that they make a difference in the lives of thousands everyday. It might be by raising funds over the phone, or just by reaching out to neighbors in need.
