InfoCision Chairman and Founder Receives Salvation Army Community Medal Award

Akron, Ohio, November 12, 2007- Gary Taylor, chairman and founder of InfoCision Management Corporation, was presented with the 2007 Salvation Army Community Medal Award at the third annual Salvation Army Community Medal Awards Luncheon on Thursday, November 8, 2007, at the Crowne Plaza in Akron, Ohio.

The Community Medal was established in 2005 by The Salvation Army Summit County Area Services to exemplify extraordinary volunteerism. The award recognizes those who give their time, talent or financial support for the betterment of others.

InfoCision has a long history of supporting the community in times of need and has been a partner of The Salvation Army's for more than 17 years. In August, 2005, when Hurricane Katrina left thousands of people without food or shelter, InfoCision employees generously gave more than $59,000 to assist the rebuilding effort in Louisiana and Mississippi. The company decided to triple-match this figure and a total of $238,353 in aid was distributed to The Salvation Army and other organizations.
