InfoCision wins eighth NorthCoast 99 Award

Akron, Ohio, September 17, 2009 – Last night, the Employer's Resource Council presented InfoCision Management Corporation with its eighth NorthCoast 99 Award. This award recognizes 99 great places to work in Northeast Ohio that excel in attracting, retaining, and motivating top performers by maintaining policies and a corporate culture designed to support the needs of employees.

Nominated by employees, InfoCision was extensively judged on its policies and practices in the areas of staffing and workforce planning; development and training; compensation and rewards; organizational culture; and organizational innovation, success, and performance.

"We are proud to once again be recognized with a Northcoast 99 Award for creating a great workplace for our employees," said InfoCision Senior Vice President of Corporate Affairs Steve Brubaker. "We believe that a happier worker is a better worker, and it's great that our employees have taken notice in nominating us for this award."

In 2008 InfoCision received the highest NorthCoast 99 honor, the Diamond Award, and in 2007 the company was presented with a Compensation & Benefits special category award.

For the last eleven years, the NorthCoast 99 Awards have set the benchmark for outstanding workplaces. The ceremony took place at LaCentre Conference Facility in Westlake.
